Love's Tapestry

By Archibald Sullivan.

(By Archibald Sullivan.)
Said she, "Go fetch the palest stars
That blossom in the Summer skies,
The amber tissue of the sun,
A flight of opal butterflies.

"A skein of silver from the moon,
And trembling green from off the trees;
The rainbow that but yesterday
Was wonderful against the breeze.

"The whitest rose that ever blew,
The dewy emerald of the lawn;
And all the apple buds that laid
Their pearly lips against the dawn.

"And fetch the nights I watched for him
And find the veil of tears I cried;
And bring the little web that broke
My heart upon the night he died.

"Then in the twilight I shall sit,
And never hear the years that flee,
But weave a beautiful tapestry
Of dreams about my love and me."

Numerous Delightful Card Parties In Social Circles

Mrs. W. Amonette and Mrs. J. F. Williamson, delightfully entertained a number of friends, in the parlors of the Ramona hotel, at five hundred. After the games, a delicious luncheon was served.

Those present were: Mesdames Wald, Dowling, Lee, Sayer, Pillsbury, Sutter, Dennis, Holway, Daniels, De Pew, Arriba, Nixon, Truesdell, Carr, Amonette, and Williamson.

Mrs. Holloway got the first prize and Mrs. Sayer second.

Of the many pre-nuptial affairs given in honor of Miss Laura Townsend, perhaps none have surpassed in attractive charm, the bridge party of Saturday afternoon, given by Mrs. R. C. Semple. The simple home was decorated with cut flowers placed about the apartments in artistic profusion. The handsome prizes were awarded to Mrs. Julius Krakauer and Miss Florence Le Baron, who were the most successful players.

The honor guest was presented with a beautiful hand embroidered shirtwaist pattern, the work of Mrs. Semple. The guests present were: Mesdames Laura Townsend, Josie Marr, Nannie Lackland, Anna Shelton, Fannie Henning, Alma Jones, Lena Fletcher, Sue Crombie, Leigh White, Carolyn Payne, Frances Clark, Florence Le Baron, Olive Laurie, Mesdames W. W. Turner, Claiborne Adams, W. S. Crombie, Roy Welcott, Julius Krakauer, W. D. Wise.

One of the enjoyable social affairs of the week was the bridge party given Saturday afternoon by Miss Mary Gates. The last of a series of parties given by her during the winter.

The prizes, handsome hand-embroidered centerpieces, were won by Mrs. W.

A. White and Mrs. H. F. Kettler. The consolation prize, a Japanese cup and saucer, was cut for and secured by Miss Myra Prater.

At the close of the games a delicious three course luncheon was served from the small tables.

Those who enjoyed Miss Gates' hospitality were: Mesdames K. D. Franklin, Edgar Fewel, J. W. Williams, E. E. Neff, Belle F. Beachel, E. M. Bray, C. A. Fox, H. F. Kettler, W. A. White, W. F. Robinson, E. E. Windsor, W. W. Pink, Mary Beall Gleason, J. E. Bowen, Dean, Misses Mamie Sexton, Myra Prater, Hawley, Carma Dean, Rosa Weal, Mary Gates Redmond.

Miss Alma Jones will be the hostess for the Wednesday Bridge club this week on Thursday, at her delightful home on Montana street.

Miss Nell Pollard will entertain the High Five club on Friday.

The Tuesday Bridge club met yesterday with Mrs. R. F. Burgess.

Mrs. W. A. White entertained informally yesterday afternoon at bridge.

Miss Sue Crombie will entertain Saturday afternoon with a bridge party in honor of Miss Lynette Fisher of Galveston.

Miss Alberta Heep will be the hostess at a bridge party on Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the East El Paso Catholic church are giving an ice cream social on Friday evening, April 22, at Woodman Hall, Alameda Ave.

PARTIES.

Mrs. C. J. Maple entertained very delightfully last Thursday in honor of Mrs. Lulu Hasam Montmorency, of Mexico City. In place of the usual bridge games the afternoon was spent very pleasantly in conversation and sewing, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The refreshment table was effectively decorated with a profusion of glowing sweet peas. The guests were: Mesdames Lulu Hasam Montmorency, James L. Marr, William Glasgow, Fernando C. Searle, Frank Coles, Mitchell, G. T. Newman, Ralph Loomis, C. E. Kellogg, Misses Nell Pollard, Maud Austin, Lillian Austin, Queenie Nebeker, Leigh White, Josie Marr.

The Epworth League, Philatheta and Baraca classes of Trinity M. E. church south, held their monthly business meetings at the home of Miss Jessye Perry on Myrtle avenue.

As this was the annual election of officers of the Philatheta class, the following officers were elected: Miss Katherine Warren, president; Miss Lila Thomas, vice president; Miss Jessye Van Perry, treasurer; Miss Alice Boren, secretary; Miss Chloe E. Calhoun, reporter.

After all the business was attended to, the hostesses, Misses Perry, Woods, and Calhoun, entertained the guests with progressive games.

Miss Anne Arant presided at the punch bowl, and delightful ice and cake were served to the following guests: Mesdames Annie L. Hughes, Annie Newcome, Irene Gaylord, Lillie Gaylord, Etelle Colard, Annie Mal Colard, Sallie V. Seawell, Emma Hoffman, Katherine Peak, Lillian Gibbs, Josephine Durstine, Alma Johnson, Marie Loustaman, Lucille Smyth, Edna Corpening, Lilla N. DINNERS AND LUNCHEONS.

Mrs. W. G. Dunn was the last hostess for the Thursday Lunch club, which she entertained very charmingly, at the Harvey house. The table was attractively decorated with carnations and ferns. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Brown in two weeks.

Mrs. B. M. Worsham entertained with a very informal dinner on Sunday for Judge and Mrs. T. S. Maxey of Austin, Texas.

Miss Ruth McCurdy was the charming hostess yesterday at a luncheon, at which Miss Lena Fletcher was the honor guest.

Green and white were the attractive colors used to adorn the table. In the center were white carnations and ferns, and cut glass vases of the same dainty flower were also at either end of the table.

The green candles were shielded with white shades, and tiny baskets of white spring flowers were at each corner. Those at the table were: Misses Lena Fletcher, Frances Clark, Gertrude Ellis, Helen Roberts, Josie Wooten, Ruth McCurdy, and Mrs. S. C. McCurdy.

Miss Katherine Warren, of 1011 North El Paso street, gave an informal reception and dinner on Sunday in honor of her friend, Miss Katherine Draper, of Nashville, Tenn. A few of her most intimate friends were present, the Messrs. Holloway, Peak and Hatten, the Messrs. S. Browder, Henk, Arnett and Warren. Miss Draper will return to her home in a few days.

THE BEAUTY INSIDE OUR RINGS
Is that of quality. You cannot see it as you do the outward charm, but you'll admire it more and more as time tests its presence. This good quality prevails in all our rings, whether you choose one for some dimpled baby finger, the hand of your betrothed, or the plain gold band that seals her to you.

El Paso's Greatest

Millinery Sale

Now Going On

Our Millinery Sale, which began this morning, is the greatest El Paso has ever seen. By "greatest," we mean that we are giving the greatest values and offering the widest selection of handsome hats ever put on sale at sacrifice prices. We must move, before we do we want to close out completely our entire stock of high grade

Millinery Leather Goods Art Jewelry Hair Goods

When considering this sale, we want you to remember that we offer no trash or job lots, such as usually constitute a millinery sale. On the contrary, our entire stock of this season's goods is what you are offered. Not only that, we include at sacrifice prices the goods that are arriving daily, that were ordered previous to our knowledge of obtaining a new location. The best test of any sale is the way people buy. From the jam and crush which we had this morning we know that customers feel the same way that we do about it—that it is El Paso's greatest millinery sale. It is our desire to sell everything previous to moving to our new location, at the corner of San Antonio and Mesa, which by the way will be one of the handsomest millinery stores in the whole United States. Present plans call for a 7-story building finished in marble with every modern idea known to the architect and decorator. However, our new store is a secondary consideration just now.

What We Want You to Consider Right Now is El Paso's Greatest Sale of Millinery
